- b) NIUM may amend any of the terms of these Terms & Conditions and by continuing to deal with NIUM or to access or use the Co-Branded Site or mobile phone application facility as far as permitted by applicable laws and regulations, the Customer agrees to any amendments.
- c) NIUM shall permit the Customer electronically to monitor the activity and positions in its account by providing the Co-Branded Site or mobile phone application facility. The Co-Branded Site or mobile phone application facility may be a proprietary service offered by NIUM or a third-party system.
- d) The Customer agrees to use the Co-Branded Site or mobile phone application facility solely for its internal business or investment purposes.
- e) The Co-Branded Site or mobile phone application facility provided by NIUM may be used to transmit, receive and confirm the execution of orders. Regardless of any on-line confirmation received upon placement of an instruction via the Co-Branded Site or mobile phone application facility, such transaction is not confirmed by NIUM until NIUM provides confirmation.

- f) NIUM consents to the Customer's access and use in reliance upon the Customer having adopted procedures to prevent unauthorised access to and use of the Co-Branded Site or mobile phone application facility, in any event, the Customer agrees to any financial liability for trades executed through the Co-Branded Site or mobile phone application facility.
- g) NIUM reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to institute or change any policies at any time relating to the use of the Co-Branded Site or mobile phone application facility.
- h) The Co-Branded Site and mobile phone application facility are provided on an "as-is" basis and NIUM makes no express or implied representations or warranties to the Customer regarding their operation or usability.
- i) NIUM makes no representations or warranties regarding any services provided by any third party.
- j) The Co-Branded Site or mobile phone application facility may be available in several versions, which may be differentiated in various aspects including, but not limited to the level of security applied, products and services available etc. NIUM shall not be liable to the Customer for any loss, expense, cost or liability suffered or incurred by the Customer due to the Customer using a version different from the standard version with all available updates installed.
- k) NIUM may offer real-time foreign exchange margin to the Customer. Due to delayed transmission between the Customer and NIUM the foreign exchange margin offered may have changed before an order from the Customer is received by NIUM. If automatic order execution is offered to the Customer, NIUM shall be entitled to change the price on which the Customer's order is executed to the market value at the time which the order from the Customer was received.
- l) NIUM does not warrant that access to or use of the Co-Branded or mobile phone application will be uninterrupted or error-free, or that the service will meet any particular criteria with respect to its performance or quality. NIUM expressly disclaims all implied warranties, including without limitation warranties of merchantability, title, fitness for a particular purpose, non-infringement, compatibility, security or accuracy.
- m) Under no circumstances, including negligence, will NIUM, its employees and/or service providers be liable for any direct, indirect, incidental, special or consequential damages including, without limitation, business interruption or loss of profits, that may result from the use of or inability to use the Co-Branded Site or mobile phone application facility unless such damages arise from NIUM and/or service provider's willful or gross negligence..
- n) The Customer agrees not to hold NIUM, Travelex and any of its service providers (for whom it acts as agent in this regard) liable for any form of damage arising as a result of the unavailability of the Co-Branded Site or mobile phone application facility unless such damages arise from NIUM and/or service provider's willful or gross negligence. The liability of NIUM in the event of slight negligence shall be limited to an amount equivalent to the costs paid by the user to NIUM for the use of the Co-Branded Site or mobile phone application facility.
- o) The Customer agrees that the use of the Co-Branded Site or mobile phone application facility is at the Customer's risk and the Customer assumes full responsibility for any losses resulting from the use of or materials obtained via the Co-Branded Site or mobile phone application facility unless such losses arise from NIUM and/or service provider's willful or gross negligence...
- p) NIUM, its directors, officers, employees, agents, contractors, affiliates, third party vendors, information providers, and other suppliers providing information or data services do not warrant that the Co-Branded Site or mobile phone application facility will be uninterrupted or error free nor do we or they make any warranty as to the timeliness, sequence, accuracy, completeness, reliability or content of any information, service or transaction provided through the use of the Co-Branded Site, mobile phone application facility or the results obtained from their use.
- q) The Customer is responsible for providing and maintaining the communications equipment and telephone or alternative services required for accessing and using the Co-Branded Site or mobile phone application facility, and for all communications service fees and charges incurred by the Customer in accessing the Co-Branded Site or mobile phone application facility.
- r) NIUM may at any time at its sole discretion terminate or restrict any Customer's access to the Co-Branded Site or mobile phone application facility at any time. Should NIUM terminate these Terms & Conditions or access to the trading platform or mobile phone application, the Customer will be liable for all fees charges and obligations incurred under these Terms & Conditions prior to termination.
- s) The Customer acknowledges that from time to time, and for any reason, the Co-Branded Site or mobile phone application facility may not be operational or otherwise available for the Customer's use due to servicing, hardware malfunction, software defect, service or transmission interruption or other cause.
- t) The Customer's failure to observe any of the under-takings or representations may result in civil or criminal liability, as well as termination of the use of the Co-Branded Site or mobile phone application facility.
- u) The Customer may not under any circumstance use the Co-Branded Site or mobile phone application facility to do any of the following:
 - i. publish, post, distribute or disseminate defamatory, infringing, obscene or other unlawful or offensive material or information.
 - ii. intercept or attempt to intercept any email correspondence.

- v) Unless such losses arise from NIUM and/or service provider's willful or gross negligence, NIUM, Travelex and its service providers will not accept any form of liability including any loss or damage to the Customer or to any other person for:
- i. any inaccuracies, errors or delays or omissions of any data, information or message or transmission or delivery of any such data, information or message.
 - ii. non-performance.
 - iii. interruptions in data, information or message transmission, due to any negligent act or omission, including any "force majeure" event or any other cause, whether or not within NIUM's control. Force majeure events include amongst other things, floods, extraordinary weather conditions, earthquakes, acts of God, fire, war, riot, labour disputes, accidents, actions of any government, communications or power failure, equipment of the use and storage of any information provided Customer through the use of the Co-Branded Site or mobile phone application facility is for the use of the Customer and is the Customer's sole risk and responsibility.

9. NIUM REPRESENTATIONS & SERVICES

- a) NIUM seeks to act honestly, exercise due care and diligence and act in the Customer's best interests at all times. NIUM will give priority to Customer interests and undertakes that it will not misuse Customer information. NIUM will use reasonable efforts to execute or arrange the execution of the Customer's instructions.
- b) Unless otherwise expressly agreed, NIUM will provide services on an execution-only basis in accordance with the Customer's instructions, and will not provide advice to the Customer regarding the merits of a transaction. The Customer is hereby prohibited from treating any remark made by an NIUM representative regarding the market, transaction or forecast as advice.
- c) Any transaction or market information or research provided by NIUM to the Customer is provided as general information only, and does not constitute and cannot be relied upon as a recommendation to trade. NIUM makes no representation, warranty or guarantee, and accepts no liability for.

10. AUTHORISATIONS AND INSTRUCTIONS

GENERAL

- a) The Customer hereby authorises NIUM to act to their instructions, or otherwise in accordance with NIUM's rights elsewhere under these Terms & Conditions. In addition, the Customer authorises NIUM to outsource its operations involved in the performance of the Services to third parties as it deems necessary.
- b) The Customer may communicate their instructions to NIUM via the Co-Branded Site or mobile phone application facility. Alternate methods will not be accepted unless agreed in writing by NIUM.
- c) In consideration of NIUM agreeing to accept instructions via an alternate method from the Customer, Customer acknowledges that NIUM is not obliged to accept/implement such instructions and will not be liable to the Customer or any other party should such instructions be unauthorised, forged or fraudulently given.
- d) The Customer shall be responsible for all Transactions, and for the accuracy of information, sent via the internet or mobile phone application using the Customer's name, pass-word or any other personal identification means implemented to identify the Customer.
- e) NIUM may, in its sole discretion and without explanation, refuse to act upon any instruction.
- f) The Customer is obliged to keep all passwords secret and ensure that third parties do not obtain access to the Customer's Account.
- g) Mere transmission of an instruction by the Customer shall not constitute a binding contract with NIUM until confirmed by NIUM via the email confirmation.
- h) The Customer shall promptly provide any instructions to NIUM, which NIUM may require. If the Customer does not provide such instructions promptly NIUM may, in its absolute discretion, take such steps at the Customer's cost, as NIUM considers necessary or desirable for its own protection or the protection of the Customer. This provision also applies in situations when NIUM is unable to contact with the Customer.
- i) In general, NIUM shall act according to instructions as soon as practically possible and shall, as far as trading instructions are concerned, act within a time frame reasonable seen in the context of the nature of the instruction. However, if after instructions are received, NIUM believes that it is not reasonably practicable to act upon such instructions within a reasonable time, NIUM may defer acting upon those instructions until it is, in NIUM's reasonable opinion, practicable to do so or notify the Customer that NIUM is refusing to act upon such instructions.

AUTHORISATIONS AND INSTRUCTIONS VIA THE CO-BRANDED SITE

- a) NIUM will not be deemed to have any order or communication electronically transmitted by the Customer until NIUM has actual knowledge of any such order or communication. The mere transmission of an instruction by the Customer shall not constitute a binding contract between NIUM and the Customer. The terms of any order or communication electronically transmitted to the Customer may be subject to change or correction. Regardless of the fact that the Co-Branded Site or mobile phone application facility might confirm that a contract is executed immediately when the Customer transmits instructions via the Co-Branded Site or mobile phone application facility, the confirmation forwarded by NIUM or made available on the Co-Branded Site or mobile phone application facility constitutes NIUM's confirmation of a contract. Any instruction sent electronically shall only be deemed to have been received and shall only then constitute a valid instruction and/or binding contract between NIUM and the Customer when such instruction has been recorded as executed by NIUM and confirmed by NIUM to the Customer including through an email confirmation or mobile phone application.

- b) The Customer acknowledges and warrants that it has received a password granting it access to the Co-Branded Site or mobile phone application facility; is the sole owner of the password provided; and accepts full responsibility for any Transaction that may occur on an account opened, held or accessed through the use of the password provided to the Customer by NIUM, even if such use may be unauthorised or wrongful. The Customer agrees to accept full responsibility for the use of the Co-Branded Site or mobile phone application facility, for any orders transmitted through the Co-Branded Site or mobile phone application facility and for all communications and the accuracy of all information sent via the Co-Branded Site or mobile phone application facility using the Customer's name, password or any other personal identification means implemented to identify the Customer.
- c) The Customer warrants and agrees that any person who is in possession of any password is authorised by the Customer, and the Customer acknowledges that they will be responsible for any actions on their account associated with the use of its password.
- d) The Customer agrees to notify NIUM immediately should the Customer become aware of any unauthorised use, loss or theft of the Customer's, username, password or account numbers; or inaccurate information with respect to the content of statements including, cash balances, open positions or transaction history.

11. PAYMENTS

The Customer agrees and acknowledges that:

- a) NIUM may advise the Customer of the need to provide payment of money, in such amount as determined by NIUM in its sole discretion to be necessary to protect itself from the personal obligation incurred by dealing in any Service on behalf of the Customer. Prior to entering into any Service, NIUM will require the Customer to deposit cleared funds. The amount required by NIUM and the time at which it is required will be at the absolute discretion of NIUM. NIUM is not obliged to permit any offset of any monies so required by NIUM;
- b) The Customer will comply with and meet all such calls in accordance with these Terms & Conditions by depositing in cleared funds the sum requested within the time specified by NIUM. NIUM may determine the amount and time in its absolute discretion. Should NIUM require additional funds from the Customer to cover market movements, the Customer must pay the amount called by NIUM immediately upon being given notice by NIUM. In all respects, time shall be of the essence for all payment obligations of the Customer;
- c) The Customer acknowledges and agrees that NIUM may refuse any request by the Customer to enter into any further Service until NIUM has confirmed the receipt of the amount in the form of cleared funds;
- d) Any exercise by NIUM of any power or right under this clause shall be binding on the Customer;
- e) It is the Customer's sole responsibility to monitor and manage their open positions and exposures, and ensure payments are met as required;
- f) Where the Customer has not met payment requirements in a timely manner, all relevant positions will be closed out by NIUM, without further reference to the Customer;
- g) The Customer is responsible to pay any deficit owing to NIUM after closure, and if the Customer defaults or refuses such payment, NIUM may apply the proceeds of any assets held by NIUM against that deficit;
- h) No credit shall be extended directly or indirectly to the Customer by NIUM, unless otherwise agreed in writing.
- i) Should the Customer fail to meet a payment request, NIUM may without prejudice to any other rights or powers under these Terms & Conditions, and in its absolute discretion, close out, without notice, any or all of the Contracts or refuse any request by the Customer to enter into any further Contracts.

12. COMMISSIONS FEES AND EXPENSES

- a) The Customer agrees to pay:
 - I. All legal costs incurred by the Customer associated with entering into these Terms & Conditions and all taxes and expenses incurred by the Customer in connection with these Terms & Conditions;
 - II. Any fees or associated charges upon the execution of any Contract as are disclosed and agreed prior between NIUM and the Customer, as well as an amount equal to any other fee charged or levied on NIUM, or other expense incurred by NIUM, arising from any action taken pursuant to these Terms & Conditions;
 - III. Any stamp duty, duties and taxes (including consumption tax if any stipulated by Japanese regulations now and in future) payable on or pursuant to these Terms & Conditions;
 - IV. All amounts incurred by NIUM as a result of the Customer's default under the terms of these Terms & Conditions, including without limitation, all reasonable legal costs on a solicitor/Customer basis; and

V. Interest, in respect of any unpaid amount due under these Terms & Conditions, at a rate of fourteen per cent per annum.

Such interest shall accrue and be calculated daily from the date payment was due until the date the Customer pays in full and shall be compounded monthly.

- b) The Customer authorises NIUM to appropriate, transfer, credit, apply or pay monies that may be received by NIUM or held by NIUM on the Customer's behalf in payment of any amounts which may be outstanding by the Customer to NIUM in a transaction effected on the Customer's behalf.
- c) Where amounts are payable by one party to the other, netting principles shall apply to enable the party owing the larger amount to pay the excess only to the other party. Amounts may be converted into the same currency in accordance with these Terms & Conditions.
- d) Customer acknowledges that should they enter into any Contract, the Customer must pay all transaction charges, fees, payments, settlements, interest and any other amounts due under these Terms & Conditions on demand by NIUM in cleared funds or otherwise as required in accordance with the terms of these Terms & Conditions.
- e) Should the Customer be given access through the electronic platform or otherwise to prices or information provided by any exchange or service to which a royalty or other fee must be paid for the use of such prices or information, NIUM shall have the right to effect the payment of any such royalty or other fee by debiting the Customer's account on a monthly basis.
- f) Notwithstanding Clause (c) above, payments by the Customer to NIUM in accordance with these Terms & Conditions must be made without any offset, counter claim or condition and without any deduction or withholding for any tax or any other reason unless the deduction or withholding is required by applicable law. Should the Customer be required to make any form of deduction in respect of tax by NIUM) is required to pay any tax in respect of any payment made in relation to these Terms & Conditions at the Customer's request the Customer agrees to keep NIUM indemnified against that tax and agrees to pay to NIUM any additional amounts required to ensure NIUM receives the full net amount that is equal to the amount NIUM would have received had a deduction, withholding or payment of tax not been made.

13. DEFAULT

- a) The Customer acknowledges and agrees that where one of the following events occurs, NIUM may take any such action provided in Clause 13(c) below:

- c) Unless otherwise agreed in writing between the parties upon termination of these Terms & Conditions NIUM will close out all of the Contracts, at NIUM's discretion.
- d) Should any event occur which has the effect of making or declaring it unlawful or impracticable for NIUM to offer any Service to the Customer in accordance with the terms outlined in these Terms & Conditions, NIUM may immediately terminate these Terms & Conditions by providing the Customer with written notice.
- e) Termination of the Agreement shall not release either party from any existing obligations or from any liabilities for any antecedent breach of any of the terms of these Terms & Conditions and will not relieve the Customer of any obligations the Customer may owe to NIUM in accordance with these Terms & Conditions prior to its termination.
- f) Rights under these Terms & Conditions can only be waived in writing, such waiver not to affect the waiving party's rights or entitlements in respect of subsequent breaches of the Agreement. Failure to compel performance shall not be construed as a waiver.

19. GENERAL

- a) NIUM may amend these Terms & Conditions by giving the Customer written notice of any amendment 30 days prior to the effective day. NIUM may suspend any of the Services in whole or in part to facilitate the amendment.
- b) NIUM, to the extent reasonably practical, will notify the Customers of any change to a part or a whole of the Services on the website and /or other media prior to the introduction. In the event that NIUM ceases to provide any of the Service, NIUM will take the necessary procedures in accordance with the Payment Service Act, and will post a notice on the NIUM website at least 30 days in advance.
- c) In the event that any of the provisions contained in these Terms & Conditions are found to be invalid or unenforceable, such provisions shall be deemed deleted, and the validity and enforceability of the remaining provisions shall continue unimpaired.
- d) If a party fails to exercise or delays in exercising any right under these Terms & Conditions, by doing so it does not waive such right. The rights provided in these Terms & Conditions do not exclude other rights provided by law.
- e) The Customer may not assign or otherwise transfer, loan, pledge or otherwise establish any right of a third party on, its rights or obligations under these Terms & Conditions or any transaction, without the express written consent of NIUM.
- f) The parties agree to the electronic recording by either party of telephone or internet conversations between the parties with or without an automatic tone warning device, and the use of such recordings as evidence by either party in any dispute or anticipated dispute between the parties or relating to dealings between the parties. Customers shall be permitted access to such tapes within a reasonable period after the date of the relevant telephone conversation and shall be liable to NIUM for all reasonable costs in retrieving and providing such tape.
- g) The Customer acknowledges and agrees that NIUM is permitted to carry out an electronic database search and search credit reference agencies in order to verify the Customer's identity and credit standing. If such searches are carried out, NIUM may keep records of the contents and results of such searches in accordance with all current and applicable laws.
- h) NIUM reserves the right to collect such information as is necessary and required from the Customer to meet its obligations under applicable sanctions and Anti-Money Laundering/Counter-Terrorism Financing legislation and regulations or any other laws or regulations (hereinafter, "AML Regulations"). NIUM may pass on information collected from the Customer and relating to transactions as required by the AML Regulations and is under no obligation to inform the Customer it has done so. NIUM may undertake all such AML Regulations checks in relation to the Customer (including restricted lists, blocked persons and countries lists) as deemed necessary or appropriate by NIUM, and reserves the right to take any action with regard thereto with no liability whatsoever therefore. The Customer undertakes not to knowingly do anything to put NIUM in breach of any of the provisions contained in the AML Regulations. The Customer undertakes to notify NIUM should the Customer become aware of anything that would put NIUM in breach of any such applicable laws and regulations.

- i) As and when requested, the Customer undertakes to provide additional information and assistance and comply with all reasonable requests to facilitate NIUM's compliance with AML Regulations.
- j) The Customer confirms that it is not aware of any fact that and have no reason to suspect that:
 - I. the money it is transferring is derived from or related to money laundering, terrorist financing or any other criminal activities (“Illegal Activities”);
 - II. the money it is transferring will be used to finance, or in connection with, any Illegal Activities; and
 - III. Any transaction, contract or deal the Customer enters into with NIUM does not, in any respect, breach sanctions.
- k) NIUM reserves the right to provide all such information regarding the Customer in relation to its obligations to, or in response to any requests (whether legally binding or not) by, a relevant regulatory body.
- l) The Customer authorises NIUM to provide any relevant information about the Customer to a credit-reporting or debt collection agency before NIUM can provide the Customer with its services and also in relation to the recovery of any overdue payments.

20. PRIVACY

- a) In order to provide the Customer with these services, NIUM needs to collect personal information about the Customer. If the Customer does not provide the requested information or agree to the information handling practices detailed in these Terms & Conditions, NIUM may be unable to provide the services outlined in these Terms & Conditions to the Customer.
- b) The Customer shall ensure that all information provided to NIUM is accurate and up to date at all times. Any changes must be advised to NIUM as soon as practicable.
- c) The Customer authorises NIUM to collect, use, store or otherwise process any personal information for purposes set out in NIUM’s privacy notice which can be found here. The Customer further agree that NIUM may disclose the Customer’s personal information to Travelex and Travelex may use the Customer’s personal information in accordance with its privacy notice, which is available at: Travelex page.

21. NOTICES

All communications relating to these Terms & Conditions shall be in writing and delivered electronically to the party concerned. Any such communication shall take effect if sent by electronic mail, at the time of transmission (and receipt of confirmation). —For the purposes of these Terms & Conditions, notices to the Customer shall be sent to the e-mail address provided by the Customer to NIUM. Notices to NIUM shall be directed to the customer support desk.

22. Governing Law and Court of Competent Jurisdiction

- a) These Terms & Conditions and the Services shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of Japan.
- b) The Tokyo District Court shall have the exclusive jurisdiction to hear any litigation related to these Terms & Conditions and the Services arising between NIUM and the Customers at the first instance.
- c) For the avoidance of doubt, the Customer’s relationship with NIUM and the operation of all Accounts in connection with foreign exchange transactions and the implementation of all instructions shall be subject at all times to applicable laws, provided that any breach of any applicable laws shall not relieve the Customer of its obligations under these Terms & Conditions. NIUM may take or refrain from taking any action whatsoever, and the Customer shall do all things required by NIUM, in order to procure or ensure compliance with applicable laws.

Overseas Remittance Service

23. Contents of the Services

- a) NIUM as a type II Money Transfer Service Provider of Japan will execute remittance orders taken in whole based on the Customer's instructions for the amount specified by the Customer (Remitter) to the beneficiary in foreign countries nominated by the Customer based on the remittance instruction submitted by the Customer who is in Japan and in accordance with these Terms & Conditions (hereinafter, “Overseas Remittance Service”). A remittance service agreement for the Overseas Remittance Service shall be established between NIUM and the Customer upon the Customer's submission of a remittance request through a Co-Branded Site or mobile phone application facility and NIUM's receipt of the remittance amount and the transaction fees set forth in Article 25 from the Customer.
- b) Even in the event NIUM outsourced operations involved in the performance of the Overseas Remittance Service to third parties under Article 10, the remittance service agreement set forth in the preceding section shall remain effect between NIUM and the Customer and shall not affect the rights and obligations of NIUM and the Customer.

24. How to Use Overseas Remittance Service

- a) The Customer shall inform NIUM of following information. NIUM reserves the right to ask further information to complete the transaction.
 - I. Remittance Amount and Currencies
 - II. Beneficially Name
 - III. Details of Delivery Method including Beneficiary's Financial Institution, Branch, Account Number
 - IV. Purpose of Remittance
 - V. Source of Funds
- b) The Customer shall specify the amount to remit by submitting a remittance request to NIUM by one of the following methods;
 - I. Designation of amount receivable: The Customer will specify the amount receivable in the local currency of the Payee, and the remittance amount in the local currency of the Customer will be calculated based on such amount receivable.
 - II. Designation of remittance amount: The Customer will specify the remittance amount in the local currency of the Customer, and the amount receivable in the local currency of the Payee will be calculated based on such remittance amount.
- c) The exchange rate for Overseas Remittance Service is determined based on the actual exchange rate TTM linked together with market rate provided by Reuters at the time of transaction, and with addition of FX Spread at the time of transfer which is 3% at maximum of the amount of transaction unless otherwise agreed. The exchange rate used for the calculation depends on a Target Country and currency. NIUM assumes no liability for any reduction to the amount receivable as a result of fluctuations in the currency exchange market.
- d) After submitting a remittance request, the Customer shall transfer the remittance amount and transaction fees set forth in Article 8-256 to the bank account designated by NIUM.
- e) In case the Customer has funded an excess amount, the Customer will have such excess amount refunded to his or her bank account. In this case no refund fees are charged to Customers. (However, for refunds due to the causes on Customers' side, FX loss is borne by the Customers.)
- f) The upper transaction limit for Overseas Remittance Service is 1,000,000 yen (not including transaction fees) or the foreign currency equivalent thereof. The maximum amount to be received by the Payee in local currency varies in accordance with the exchange rate applied at the time of remittance processing by NIUM. There is no lower limit.
- g) NIUM executes the Overseas Remittance Services when NIUM receives the remittance amount and the fees and completes the necessary checks.
- h) The fund transferred by the Customer to NIUM will be refunded to the Customer through the payment option selected by the Customer in either one of the events I to III described below:
 - I. the remittance request has been cancelled by the Customer or refused by NIUM;
 - II. a bank used at the time of providing the Service refuses the remittance transaction because of the incorrectness of the information provided by the Customer, necessity of regulation, or any other legitimate reasons; or
 - III. remittance is impossible because the account of the payee is invalid. In this case no refund fees are charged to Customers.However, for refunds due to the causes on Customers' side, FX loss is borne by the Customers.
- i) The Customer may not cancel the Overseas Remittance Service transaction after NIUM starts to execute the process. The Customer may access the Co-Branded Site or mobile phone application facility to see the current process of the request and transaction history.
- j) NIUM has a right to refuse a remittance request at its discretion, and may refuse a remittance request if the Customer's registered name or address, etc. does not match the Customer's payment details (e.g. bank account details). In this case, the amount transferred by the Customer to NIUM will be refunded to the Customer. No refund fees are charged to Customers. (For refunds due to the causes on Customers' side, FX loss is borne by the Customers.)

25. Transaction Fees

NIUM will charge maximum of JPY 600 as the transaction fee for Overseas Remittance Service. The actual transaction fee will be displayed on the screen of the Co-Branded Site or mobile phone application facility when a remittance request is made.

26. Issuance of Receipts

- a) In the event that the Customers submit a remittance request and a remittance service agreement is established under the provisions of these Terms & Conditions, NIUM will issue an electronic receipt to the Customer detailing the contents of the remittance request and the remittance amount, etc.
- b) The Customers shall agree in advance that NIUM may provide the receipt referred to in the preceding Section to the Customers by email or display on the Website or the app. The Customers may withdraw such agreement in the manner designated by NIUM, in which case NIUM provides the Customer with the receipt in the manner designated by NIUM. On issuing such receipts, fees may be charged on the Customer.

27. Standard Performance Period

The standard performance period up until receipt of the money in the Payee's account is 1 to 2 Business days from the time the funds are remitted to NIUM's bank account from the Customer's bank account. The detailed performance period will be displayed on the screen when a remittance request is made.
